DANGERPOINT PASSED BY THE POPE

With the Exercise of Prudence the Pontiff Will Recover, Declares Prof. Marchiafava

RALLIED IN A WONDERFUL MANNER YESTERDAY

Temperature Normal and Patient Able to Take Some Nourishment—Affecting Meeting With His Nephew—Pope Tells of a Remarkable Dream in Which Departed Sister Assured Him That His Time Had Not Yet Come.

Rome, April 14.—The pope has rallied in a wonderful manner from the serious attack from which he suffered yesterday. He appeared to be on the point of death last night, the physicians report tonight indicates that the danger point, for the present, at least, has been passed and that the pontiff will visit to the sick room shortly before midnight. Although the pope's temperature had increased slightly, he found the general condition satisfactory. He administered a heart stimulant and shortly the pope went to sleep.

Able to Take Nourishment.—Throughout the day the temperature was normal, the pulse remained at about 85 and the respiration 26. This indicated a considerable amelioration in the bronchial symptoms, which was evidenced by easier breathing and freedom from long periods from cough. In addition, the pope was able to take some nourishment and he showed much interest in what was happening about him.

Tenderly Embraced Nephew.—When Professor Marchiafava allowed the pontiff's nephew to enter the room there was an affecting scene. The frail and aged pontiff and the young and robust priest embraced tenderly, the latter being unable to restrain his emotion at finding the pope so changed physically. Professor Marchiafava tonight repeated his assurances that if prudence were exercised the pope would recover.

The afternoon session, given over to addresses of the speakers, was a stormy business meeting which resulted in a partial victory for the forces of Mrs. Wilson. The committee of the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which began its session here today, were welcomed to Washington by President Wilson in his first public address since his inauguration.

BECAME ACQUAINTED WITH HANDSOME WOMAN.—This Circumstance May Be Factor in Martin's Disappearance.

London, April 14.—During his sojourn in England, the missing Memphis broker, became acquainted with members of a gang of international sharpshooters and confidence men, including a handsome woman, according to the Daily News.

But although they are past masters in the art of kidnapping and terrorizing and have succeeded in many daring coups both in England and Scotland, it is not believed that they would go so far as murder.

All clues so far point to Scotland Yard suggesting that Martin had been seen at different places since the date of his disappearance have proved on investigation to be untrue.
